REVIEW PAPERS

King B: Metrology in chemistry: Part I. Current activities in Europe 173
King B: Metrology in chemistry: Part II. Future requirements in Europe 266
Kovalevsky J: The consequences of the mutual recognition of measurement standards for international metrology 409
Ortner HM: The human factor in quality management 130

GENERAL PAPERS

Barwick VJ → Ellison SLR
Brouwer CB → Weijers RNM
Buzoianu M: Practical considerations on the traceability to conventional scales 142
Buzoianu M: Some aspects of the evaluation of measurement uncertainty using reference materials 231
De Bièvre P: The key elements of traceability in chemical measurement: agreed or still under debate? 423
De Bièvre P: Traceability of (values carried by) reference materials 224
Ehrmeyer SS, Laessig RH: Total quality management in hematology 360
Ellison SLR, Barwick VJ, Williams A: Legislative limits below detection capability 308
Groves MR: Can the progress in quality management tools for POC tame the fiends from Pandora's box? 475
Holmgren M, Müller N: Accreditation of small laboratories 470
Jager JW → Weijers RNM
Jansen RTP: The quest for comparability: Calibration 2000 363
King B: The practical realization of the traceability of chemical measurements standards 429
Laessig RH → Ehrmeyer SS
Lamberty A → Pauwels J
Máriássy M, Vyskočil L, Mathiasová A: Link to the SI via primary direct methods 437
Mathiasová A → Máriássy M
Mathur-De Vré R: The scope and limitations of a QA system in research 3
Müller N → Holmgren M
Pauwels J → van der Veen AMH
Pauwels J, van der Veen A, Lamberty A, Schimmel H: Evaluation of uncertainty of reference materials 95
Richter W: How to achieve international comparability for chemical measurements 418
Rösslein M: Evaluation of uncertainty utilising the component by component approach 88
Sanders GT: The EC4 European Register for Clinical Chemists in relation to quality aspects 482
Schimmel H → Pauwels J
van der Veen A → Pauwels J
van der Veen AMH, Pauwels J: Uncertainty calculations in the certification of reference materials. 1. Principles of analysis of variance 464
Vermaercke P: Sense and nonsense of quality assurance in an R&D environment 11
Vyskočil L → Máriássy M
Weijers RNM, Jager JW, Brouwer CB: Quality [r]evolution in diabetes care 485
Williams A → Ellison SLR
Williams A: What can we learn from traceability in physical measurements? 414
Zschunke A: The role of reference materials 441

SHORT CONTRIBUTIONS

Aboul-Enein HY: Selectivity versus specificity in chromatographic analytical methods 180
Dobkowski Z: QA and QM in R&D and non-routine analysis for industrial chemistry 44
Tighe P: Urine dry reagent strip "error" rates using different reading methods 488

PRACTITIONER'S REPORTS

Aslan D → Tanyalcin T
Aslan D, Kuralay F, Tanyalcin T, Tanyalcin O: A practical analytical quality report on the effect of carotenemia on neonatal bilirubin levels 54
Balaram V: Assessment of the ICP-MS method using the interlaboratory QA study of two Polish soil RMs 325
Barwick VJ, Ellison SLR, Rafferty MJQ, Gill RS: The evaluation of measurement uncertainty from method validation studies. Part 2: The practical application of a laboratory protocol 104
Barwick VJ, Ellison SLR: The evaluation of measurement uncertainty from method validation studies. Part 1: Description of a laboratory protocol 47
Berglund M → Vogl J
Boden S → Vermaercke P
De Bièvre P → Papadakis I
De Smet D → Mertens G
Diemer J → Vogl J
Dorizzi RM, Schinella M, Pupillo A, Endrizzi L: Hematological health-related intervals estimated using an indirect method in order to satisfy the accreditation standards 367
Duta S: The role of certified reference materials in ensuring the quality of spectrochemical measurements – the present status in Romania 339
Duta S: The use of certified reference materials in the Romanian traceability scheme 243
Ellison SLR → Barwick VJ
Endrizzi L → Dorizzi RM

Geijo F: Quality management in analytical R&D in the pharmaceutical industry: Building quality from GLP 6
Gielis M → Mertens G
Gill RS → Barwick VJ
Gökalp N → Tanyalcin T
Goldschmidt HMJ → Péquériaux NCV
Haarich M → Woitke P
Harms U → Woitke P
Herzig R → Korhammer S
Heumann KG → Vogl J
Islin H, Thystrup S: Internal user inquiries as a useful tool for adjustment of the quality system and for quality improvement 371
Korhammer S, Herzig R, Schramel P, Kumpulainen J, Markert B, Muntau H, Quevauviller P: The preparation of a cabbage reference material for environmental monitoring and food analysis 238
Kruh D: Assessment of uncertainty in calibration of a gas mass flowmeter 280
Küffer H: Telematics applications in a laboratory cluster 374
Kumanlioğlu K → Tanyalcin T
Kumpulainen J → Korhammer S
Kuralay F → Aslan D
Kurtulmus Y → Tanyalcin T
Kuselman I: Assessment of permissible ranges for results of pH-metric acid number determinations using uncertainty calculation 100
Liesegang D → Vogl J
Linnebank F: The practical advantages of hospital quality systems such as NIAZ/PACE 377
Malissa H, Riepe W: Statistical evaluation of uncertainty for rapid tests with discrete readings – examination of wastes and soils 495
Marecek J → Synek V
Markert B → Korhammer S
Mertens G, Gielis M, De Smet D, Van Cleynenbreugel G: Quality assurance in immunogenetics and histocompatibility: experience with EFI Accreditation 381
Muntau H → Korhammer S
Namieśnik J → Zygmunt B
Ostermann M → Vogl J
Papadakis I → Vogl J
Papadakis I, Quétel CR, Taylor PDP, De Bièvre P: Contribution to the certification of cadmium and lead amount content in the BCR CRM-278R mussel tissue by isotope dilution mass spectrometry 198
Papadakis I, Taylor PDP: Establishment of SI-traceable reference ranges for the content of various elements in the IMEP-9 water sample 331
Péquériaux NCV, Puts J, Goldschmidt HMJ: Quality improvement through verbal and written interviews of laboratory employees 491
Puhakainen E → Siloaho M
Pupillo A → Dorizzi RM
Puts J → Péquériaux NCV
Quétel CR → Papadakis I
Quétel CR → Vogl J
Quevauviller P → Korhammer S
Rafferty MJQ → Barwick VJ
Riepe W → Malissa H
Schinella M → Dorizzi RM
Schramel P → Korhammer S
Siloaho M, Puhakainen E: Implementation of a quality system in a clinical laboratory – Evaluation of quality indicators 182
Subrt P → Synek V
Synek V, Subrt P, Marecek J: Uncertainties of mercury determinations in biological materials using an atomic absorption spectrometer – AMA 254 58
Tanyalcin O → Aslan D
Tanyalcin T, Aslan D, Kurtulmus Y, Gökalp N, Kumanlioğlu K: Reference intervals of serum folate and vitamin B12 developed from data of healthy subjects 383
Tanyalcin T → Aslan D
Taylor PDP → Papadakis I
Taylor PDP → Vogl J
Thystrup S → Islin H
Van Cleynenbreugel G → Mertens G
Van Nevel L → Vogl J
Vermaercke P, Verrezen F, Boden S: Implementing quality assurance in an R&D environment at the Belgian Nuclear Research Centre – SCK · CEN 21
Verrezen F → Vermaercke P
Vogl J, Liesegang D, Ostermann M, Diemer J, Berglund M, Quétel CR, Taylor PDP, Heumann KG: Producing SI-traceable reference values for Cd, Cr and Pb amount contents in polyethylene samples from the Polymer Elemental Reference Material (PERM) project using isotope dilution mass spectrometry 314
Vogl J, Quétel CR, Ostermann M, Papadakis I, Van Nevel L, Taylor PDP: Contribution to the certification of B, Cd, Mg, Pb, Rb, Sr, and U in a natural water sample for the International Measurement Evaluation Programme Round 9 (IMEP-9) using ID-ICP-MS 272
Woitke P, Haarich M, Harms U: Cofactors in Biota: results of a German interlaboratory exercise on the determination of total lipids in fish tissue 499
Zygmunt B, Namieśnik J: Reference materials in environmental trace organic analysis 191

DISCUSSION FORUM

Aboul-Enein HY: Certification of herbal products: an urgent need for appropriate methods 286
De Bièvre P: Should interlaboratory comparisons provide traceability? 114
Golc-Wondra A → Prosek M
Hirst D, St John A: Keeping the spotlight on quality from a distance 391
Holt DW: Proficiency testing schemes for therapeutics and toxicology 389
Jorhem L: Traceability and its role in interlaboratory comparisons (proficiency testing programmes), modeled on trace element determination in biological materials 449
